Justin What kinds of news are you interested in?

Linda First of all, I take a look at every page and read the (1) headlines. I'm a huge football and golf fan, so after that I read the (2) _____. If I'm going to the beach or the mountains, I'll look at the (3) _____ before I leave. What about you?

Justin I want to know what's happening in my city. So I read the (4) _____ first. But I'm also interested in what's happening in other countries, so I always read the (5) _____ as well. If I want to laugh, I'll look at the (6) _____.

IV. Read the text carefully and then, move to item number II and III.

Lee el texto cuidadosamente y luego avanza a los ítems II y III.

①

An Italian boy hitchhiked 2,000 kilometres to see a girl in Sweden. The fifteen-year-old had met the girl on holiday, but couldn't stop thinking about her when he got back to Milan.

Enzo Rossi was stopped by police at a motorway service station near Stockholm because his parents had reported him as missing. They were worried because he hadn't told them about his plans.

When they heard his story, the police contacted the girl's parents. They agreed that the youngsters could meet. But when the girl's father arrived, he drove the boy straight to the airport. His daughter had decided that she didn't want to see the boy again.

A boy was saved by his trainers when lightning struck his house. The boy was speaking on the phone when a huge shock made him scream with pain and drop the handset.

The fifteen-year-old boy was talking to his girlfriend about the presents they had received on Christmas Day when the lightning struck. He heard a crash of thunder, felt a shock up his arm and then the lights went out. He later found out that the rubber soles of his trainers had saved his life. He had only had them for 24 hours.

Alex's mother, a single parent, had saved for a long time to buy the trainers, but said that they were the best thing she had ever bought.
